

Choirs

Sacred Heart Girls' College has a long tradition of choral singing, which continues to grow and develop to fit the needs of the students.

In 2017 we have three choral groups available to students.

THE TREBLES is our junior choir, open to all Year 7 and 8 students who want to sing. The group is currently directed by Philippa Drinkwater, an ex-pupil of the school, who has recently returned to New Plymouth from London. She is a vocal tutor so our students are indeed privileged to have someone with such skills working with them each week as they prepare to perform in a variety of settings.

Our SENIOR CHOIR is, in 2017, a group of students from Year 9 – 13, who enjoy singing. We work towards singing in 3-part harmony, and prepare music from a range of popular genres.

Our new venture this year is a student-led ACAPELLA CHOIR. This is a new initiative by Laura Griffiths, one of our senior music students who has attended workshops with Pentatonix, a very popular Acapella group based in the USA. Acapella singing, or singing without instruments, has been further popularised by the Pitch Perfect movies and a wealth of Acapella choir competitions.

The choir is small, and open to students able to hold a part, and who have a good ear for harmony and pitch.

Information can be obtained from the Music Department.
