

Concert and Jazz Bands

Fusion Concert Band is a combined Sacred Heart Girls' College and Francis Douglas Memorial College concert band. We practice on a weekly basis with the aim of attending the Waikato Band and Orchestra Festival. It is open to instrumental players who have reached a level at which they can cope with the demands of playing as part of a large group.

The band is directed by a local music teacher, Robert Greenfield, who has more recently been Head of Music at Spotswood College.

We have also welcomed the return of a Senior Jazz Band. This small group is learning to play this exciting genre of Music, that involves developing their improvisation skills. This group is working towards the Waikato Festival, and also a schools' evening at the local New Plymouth Jazz Club.

Information can be obtained from the Music Department.